

Dear Applicant,

My name is Harry Peart, and my family and I are missionaries in Haiti. We first came to the field in 2006 following God's call on our life to plant churches. Since then our ministry has grown as God has stretched our faith. We have learned so much while being on the field here in Haiti. For example I have learned how to clean and rebuild a carburetor on a generator. I have learned how to install a water filtration system. I have learned how to change head gaskets on an ATV. I have learned how to stitch a cut. This is the tip of the iceberg when it comes to all God has allowed me to learn, not to mention all the spiritual lessons of totally trusting in HIM!

If this list caught you off guard, then you were like I was before we came to the field. While in college and working in the ministry for over 20 years in the states, I learned a lot about the Bible and the ministry, but I was not prepared for the obstacles we would face trying to keep my family alive in a third world country. I was fortunate that I grew up as a PK – that's right a Plumber's Kid. My dad taught me many things, and we came to work with veteran missionaries here in Haiti. There are some prospective missionaries that might make it to the field, but run into problems and leave the field. Consider the following statistics which we found staggering.

Independent Baptist Missionaries

In 1950 there were 100,000 missionaries.

Since 1950 we have lost 1,000 missionaries per year.

Only 50 take their place - we are running out of people.

Today there are approximately 29,000 missionaries worldwide.

There are only about 5,000 Independent Baptist Missionary families serving on foreign fields.

43% of missionaries never complete deputation.

75% of missionaries return home within the first three years and never go back to a foreign field.

1,000 American Missionaries return home each year.

Less than 1% of students attending a Bible College ever consider the mission field.

In 2 Timothy 2:2 Paul tells Timothy to teach others so they can go out and to teach others also. With this verse and the above statistics in mind, I believe that God has led us to start the APPS Program here in Haiti where interns can experience first-hand the challenges that they might one day face on the field. Please review the material which explains the program and see if this may be a program of interest to your students. I will be happy to answer any questions you might have. If you have prospective students who are interested, they are welcome to contact us directly. Please feel free to make as many copies of this packet as needed.

Open Door Baptist Missions A.P.P.S. Internship Program Information

Avenues of Practical Preparation for Service

Thank you for your interest in Open Door Baptist Missions' A.P.P.S. Internship Program in Haiti. APPS stands for Avenues of Practical Preparation for Service. This may be your first time outside the USA, or maybe you have been on several mission trips all around the world. Whichever the case may be, we have put together some general information about the program that you will find helpful.

Haiti is located in the Caribbean Sea about 600 miles south of Florida. It shares an island with the Dominican Republic. It is the second poorest country in the world. It is a third world country with people of African descent. The primary language is Haitian Creole with the educated people speaking French. The currency is Haitian gourdes. The main religion is voodoo, or the worship of Satan, often mixed with Catholicism.

You will be staying in Walondry, close to the town of St. Raphael, on the Open Door Baptist Missions Maranatha Campus. While in you will also be attending classes which will equip you with practical lessons that will hopefully help your transition to the field be easier. We hope your visit will be one in which the Lord does great things in your life and in the lives of the Haitians you will meet. Remember that this is not the USA and things are done differently in Haiti. It is important to note that after you leave, we and our families remain behind, so while you are here, please keep in mind your testimony and that of the missionaries and their ministries.

FAQs

1. What is the A.P.P.S. program?

A.P.P.S. stands for Avenues of Practical Preparation for Service. The Open Door Baptist Missions APPS Internship Program is designed with practical pre-field helps and hands-on training to prepare future missionaries for life on the field.

2. What will I be learning?

Basic courses will be taught in auto mechanics, small engine repair, plumbing, construction, electrical, alternative energy sources, diesel mechanics, generator usage and rating, medical and dental care, and food preservation and handling. Each intern will experience first-hand many cultural and practical challenges that can affect the ministry. They will also be able to actively participate in the ministries.

3. When are the dates for the program?

The dates are July 7 through August 18, 2016.

4. Who can participate?

Those who have completed at least one year of college and feel as though God is calling him or her to the mission field may participate.

5. What is the cost of the program?

The total tuition is $1850 which includes the following: your round-trip air fare on MFI from Ft. Pierce, Florida, room and board for 6 weeks, all supplies needed for each class. Expenses that are not included in the $1850 tuition are: mandatory Travel/Accident insurance, your travel and lodging to and from Ft. Pierce, FL, passport fees, and vaccinations.

6. Who will be teaching my classes?

All classes will be taught by either specialists in the field or by veteran missionaries here in Haiti. The classes will be a combination of book work as well as practical hands-on assignments. Through a combination of class work and real-life scenarios, coupled with your ministry opportunities here on campus, you will get a true picture of what it is like to be the missionary for six weeks.

7. Will I be able to participate in ministry activities in Haiti?

Each intern will be able to be involved in the ministry activities that the missionaries are currently involved in. Some examples are visitation, VBS, outreach ministries, church services, and special music.

8. What types of communication will I have access to?

Communications to and from Haiti are reliable most times, but there is no guarantee that there will be constant communications available. Internet is available but can be unreliable. Cell phones are available for purchase on a “pay as you go” basis, but each intern would be responsible for the cost above the tuition fee. This is totally optional but not recommended.

Here are some of the Apps that will be available.
